

WOMEN IN FILM AND TELEVISION - TORONTO

CBCtelevision

CBC Business of Broadcasting Mentorship

presented by Women in Film and Television-Toronto in partnership with CBC Television

This national competitive award will give one emerging Canadian female filmmaker the invaluable opportunity to take a comprehensive week-long workshop, at a designated CBC location, where the winner will be given the opportunity to establish business and mentoring relationships with CBC Drama Staff, and will be guided through various production and broadcast components of short film. Topics and areas of exploration will include: project management, financing film and television production, marketing and distribution, and emerging technologies and the impact of technology on content.
