

Applications must include:

One copy of the following documents must be submitted, unbound and unstapled, in order for your application to be fully considered:

- Details of your prior training
- A two page curriculum vitae
- Two letters of support
- A one page letter outlining why this opportunity is important to your career development

Application Process:

Fully completed applications must be submitted to WIFT-T at the address below. Applications will be assessed on an ongoing basis until all 50 bursaries have been filled, successful applicants will be notified by email.

For further information:

Women In Film and Television – Toronto
110 Eglinton Avenue East, Suite 601
Toronto, Ontario M4P 2Y1
Tel: 416-322-3430 ext. 221

Email: wift@wift.com

WIFT-T reserves the right to post the successful applicants names and bios on the WIFT-T website.

The Quebecor Fund / PDPT supports the development of visible minorities and Aboriginals in all aspects of the industry including: independent production; post-production; in-house production; broadcast journalism; on-camera performance; publicity; marketing; program sales and distribution; interactive digital media; ecommerce, mobile technology; and management training

Women in Film and Television – Toronto (WIFT-T) is a leading internationally affiliated professional organization dedicated to the advancement of women and underrepresented groups in screen-based media. WIFT-T offers year-round training and business skills development through its Centre for Media Professionals, networking events and industry awards, providing the tools to succeed in Canada's global entertainment industry. WIFT-T serves more than 3,000 women and men in Canadian screen-based media, connecting them to close to 10,000 leading film, television, and new media professionals worldwide.